

The flexible shielded electrical conduit contains four wires. Red(+) and White(-) are for connection to AC power. See the data plate on the fan for the appropriate voltage. The other two wires are Black and Orange and connect to a normally open switch or relay contacts. Contact closure activates fan.